

Speak, sing, study, live Italian...

... while experiencing the glories of the Piemonte and Lombardia regions of northern Italy, the foothills of the Alps.

Si parla, si canta!

The preeminent Italian language program for young singers and collaborative pianists in Arona, Italy

“Si parla, si canta truly changed my perceptions of music, performance, and language in one month. The instruction was incredible, and the small town life allowed me to practice Italian and absorb culture every day. I couldn’t have asked for a better program.”
